

The I Ching, Ancient Consciousness, and the Creation of Chinese Medicine

A Course by Jessie Shaw, M.S. L.Ac. O.M.

Course Description

Course Lecture

Welcome

Significant Archeological Discoveries I

The Nature of the I Ching/Yi Jing

The Zhou Yi and Its Historical Context

Magical Consciousness

Early Medicine Practices

The Warring States Period and the “Ten Wings Commentaries”

Mythical Consciousness

The “Great Treatise”

Warring States, Qin and Han Dynasty Medicine Practices

Implications for Today’s Practitioners

Workbook and Experiential Exercises

Reflection Upon Synchronicities

Counting the Yarrow Wands / Throwing the Coins

Gebser’s States of Consciousness

Exploring the Presence of the Five Elements

Bringing More Ritual to Life

Guided Meditation

Bibliography - Sources Used

